

DFV: Amazon Alexa now with monthly payments and liability insurance

Frankfurt am Main, 12.12.2018

The Insurtech DFV Deutsche Familienversicherung AG continues its vision of insurance sales via Amazon Echo and introduces monthly payments. In addition, the insurance portfolio, which is offered through Alexa, as announced in October, also expands.

Dr. Stefan M. Knoll, CEO of DFV: "Thanks to our flexible, event- and java-based IT we are able to sell insurance via Amazon Echo. The use of AmazonPay as a payment method is another sign of the company's digital capability. The next step is to offer more and more of our products during Amazon Echo."

Since this week, the Frankfurt Insurtech also offers, as first insurance company worldwide, liability insurance via Alexa. So customers can handle the complete conclusion of a liability insurance on Amazon Echo from the advice to the payment.

About DFV Deutsche Familienversicherung AG
